As such, DETR has provided SCP 2.2 to the Governor's Executive Committee for review and approval.

This policy provides program requirements for the WIOA Youth programs. The purpose of this revision is to update the formatting, federal regulations, and references throughout the policy, in addition, hyperlinks have been added for easier accessibility to reference documentation. This policy is being revised for compliance and to provide clear and concise guidance to the LWDBs for local area policy development.
